A. AUTHORITY FOR RESTRAINT OF PETITIONER.

Anthony Bradley is restrained pursuant to judgment and sentence in King County Superior Court No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA and 02-1-07413-4 SEA. Appendix A and B.

B. ISSUE PRESENTED.

A plea is involuntary if a defendant is misinformed about a direct consequence of the plea. A direct consequence has been defined by this Court as a consequence that has a definite, immediate and automatic effect on the range of the defendant's punishment. Should this personal restraint petition be dismissed where petitioner was misinformed about the standard range for one of the two crimes to which he pled guilty, but where the standard range for that crime was not a direct consequence because it did not have definite, immediate or automatic effect on his punishment where the law required that it be served concurrently with the greater sentence.

C. STATEMENT OF THE CASE.

Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA.

Anthony Bradley was charged by information with the crime of possession of cocaine with intent to deliver. Appendix C. The Certification for Determination of Probable Cause reflects that on May 14, 2002, Bradley and a companion were arrested after police officers observed them engage in what appeared to be a drug transaction. Several small pieces of crack cocaine were found in Bradley's pocket, and 19.8 grams of crack cocaine were found in his companion's pocket. Appendix C. Bradley pled guilty to an amended charge of possession of cocaine on September 26, 2002. Appendix D. Pursuant to the plea agreement, Bradley agreed that his standard range was 33-43 months based on an offender score of eight. Appendix D. The parties agreed to recommend a 33-month sentence, which would be served concurrently with King County Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA. Appendix D. Instead, the court imposed a Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative (DOSA) consisting of 19 months of confinement and 19 months of community custody to be served concurrently with Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA. Appendix A. The judgment and sentence was filed with the clerk of the trial court on October 17, 2002.

Appendix A. Bradley did not appeal.

Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA.

Bradley was charged by information with the crime of possession of cocaine with intent to deliver. Appendix E. The Certification for Determination of Probable Cause reflects that on August 16, 2002, the police served a search warrant on the home of Joyce Hayes. Appendix E. When the police entered the home, they saw Bradley throw a plastic bag containing 33 grams of crack cocaine to the ground. Appendix E. An additional 61 grams of crack and flake cocaine were found in the residence. Appendix E. Bradley pled guilty as charged on September 26, 2002 (the same day that he pled guilty to possession of cocaine in Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA). Appendix E. Pursuant to the plea agreement, Bradley agreed that his standard range was 87-116 months based on an offender score of nine. Appendix E. The State recommended an 87-month sentence to be served concurrently with Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA. Appendix E. The court imposed a Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative (DOSA) consisting of 50.75 months of confinement and 50.75 months of community custody to be served concurrently with Cause No.

02-C-04718-8 SEA. Appendix B. The judgment and sentence was filed with the clerk of the trial court on October 17, 2002.

Appendix B. Bradley did not appeal.<sup>1</sup>

D. ARGUMENT.

1. IN CAUSE NO. 02-C-04718-8 SEA BRADLEY WAS SENTENCED WITH AN INCORRECT OFFENDER SCORE AND STANDARD RANGE.

Bradley contends that his sentence in Cause No.

02-C-04718-8 SEA is invalid because his offender score was incorrectly calculated. He is correct.

An appellate court will grant substantive review of a personal restraint petition only when the petitioner makes a threshold showing of constitutional error from which he has suffered actual prejudice or nonconstitutional error which constitutes a fundamental defect that inherently resulted in a complete miscarriage of justice.

In re Pers. Restraint of Cook, 114 Wn. 2d 802, 813, 792 P.2d 506

<sup>1</sup> In a prior personal restraint petition, Court of Appeals No. 53154-9-I, Bradley challenged the sentence imposed in King County Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA. That petition was dismissed by the Court of Appeals in 2004. Inexplicably, he did not challenge the sentence imposed in King County Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA in the prior petition. Because Bradley raises a new, meritorious claim in this petition, this petition is not a successive petition "for similar relief" and is not prohibited by RAP 16.4(d). See In re Pers. Restraint of Haverty, 101 Wn.2d 498, 503, 681 P.2d 835 (1984).

(1990). A miscalculated offender score constitutes a fundamental defect that inherently results in a complete miscarriage of justice. In re Pers. Restraint of Johnson, 131 Wn.2d 558, 933 P.2d 1019 (1997).

The petitioner bears the burden of showing that his offender score was incorrect. In re Pers. Restraint of Connick, 144 Wn.2d 442, 28 P.3d 729 (2001).

No petition collaterally attacking a judgment and sentence may be filed more than one year after the judgment becomes final, if the judgment and sentence is valid on its face and was rendered by a court of competent jurisdiction. RCW 10.73.090(1); see In re Pers. Restraint of Runyan, 121 Wn.2d 432, 444, 449, 853 P.2d 424 (1993). A judgment becomes final on the date that it is filed with the clerk of the trial court if no appeal is filed. RCW 10.73.090(3). The judgment in this case became final on October 17, 2002, when it was filed with the clerk of the trial court. Appendix A and C. This petition was filed more than four years later.

However, the one-year time limit only applies if the judgment and sentence is "valid on its face." RCW 10.73.090(1). A judgment is valid on its face unless the judgment evidences an error without further elaboration. In re Pers. Restraint of Thompson, 141 Wn.2d 712, 10 P.3d 380 (2000). Facial invalidity has been interpreted to include those documents signed as part of a plea agreement as well as the judgment and sentence itself. State v. Robinson, 104 Wn. App. 657, 17 P.3d 653 (2001). The documents of the plea can inform the inquiry as to whether the judgment and sentence is invalid on its face. In re Pers. Restraint of Hemenway, 147 Wn.2d 529, 55 P.3d 615 (2002).

The parties agree that pursuant to State v. Smith, 144 Wn.2d 665, 30 P.2d 1245 (2001), Bradley's juvenile adjudications could not be included in his offender score in Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA. For crimes that occurred before June 13, 2002, juvenile adjudications for class B and C felonies "washed out" when the defendant reached the age of 23. Former RCW 9.94A.360(4). Smith, 144 Wn.2d at 670-71.

In 2002, the legislature enacted RCW 9.94A.525, which applies the same "wash-out" principles to both adult convictions and juvenile adjudications. RCW 9.94A.525(2). This Court held that the 2002 amendments allow for the inclusion of juvenile offenses in the offender score for crimes committed after June 13, 2002. State v. Varga, 151 Wn.2d 179, 86 P.3d 139 (2004).

Because Bradley's crime in Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA occurred on May 31, 2002, Smith applies. Thus, Bradley's juvenile offenses "washed out" for purposes of this conviction on his 23rd birthday, which was on September 16, 1997. Only his prior adult convictions should have been included in his offender score. Bradley's offender score should have been calculated as seven points, rather than eight points. He should have been advised that his offender score was 22 to 29 months rather than 33 to 43 months.

2. IN CAUSE NO. 02-1-07413-4 SEA BRADLEY WAS SENTENCED WITH A CORRECT OFFENDER SCORE AND STANDARD RANGE.

Bradley also contended in his petition that his offender score in Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA was incorrectly calculated. In his brief to this Court, he now agrees that his offender score in that case was correctly calculated.<sup>2</sup> The crime at issue in this cause number was committed on August 16, 2002, after the 2002 amendment to the scoring rules went into effect. Thus, Bradley's juvenile adjudications were properly included in his offender score. Bradley's offender score was properly calculated to be nine, and his standard range was properly calculated to be 87 to 116 months.

<sup>2</sup> "Granted, he was not misinformed as to the other offense." Supplemental Brief of Petitioner, at 8.

The judgment and sentence in Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA is valid on its face.

3. BRADLEY HAS FAILED TO ESTABLISH THAT WITHDRAWAL OF HIS PLEA TO POSSESSION OF COCAINE IN KING COUNTY CAUSE NO. 02-C-04718-8 SEA IS NECESSARY TO CORRECT A MANIFEST INJUSTICE.

Bradley contends that due to the error in the offender score in Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA he should be allowed to withdraw both of his pleas. However, because he knew that his sentences would be served concurrently, the standard range for the lesser sentence was not a direct consequence of his plea. Thus, he has failed to establish that his plea was involuntary and that withdrawal of the plea is necessary to correct a manifest injustice.

The constitution requires that a plea of guilty be voluntary. State v. Barton, 93 Wn.2d 301, 304, 609 P.2d 1353 (1980). CrR 4.2 provides additional safeguards. Barton, 93 Wn.2d at 304. That rule requires that a defendant be informed of all direct consequences of the plea. Id. at 305. A direct consequence of a plea is a consequence that "represents a definite, immediate and largely automatic effect on the range of the defendant's punishment." State v. Mendoza, 157 Wn.2d 582, 588, 141 P.3d 49 (2006) (quoting Barton, 93 Wn.2d at 305).

CrR 4.2(f) provides that courts should allow a defendant to withdraw a guilty plea when withdrawal is necessary to correct a manifest injustice. Barton, 93 Wn.2d at 306. The failure to advise a defendant of the direct consequences of the plea constitutes a manifest injustice. Id. Generally, a defendant may move to withdraw his plea of guilty if he is misadvised as to the standard range regardless of whether the correct range is higher or lower than anticipated. Mendoza, 157 Wn.2d at 591.

However, in the unique circumstances presented here, the standard range as to possession of cocaine was not a direct consequence of Bradley's plea. The pleas to possession and possession with intent to deliver were entered on the same date and the two cases were sentenced on the same date. The parties agreed that the time served on both cause numbers would be served concurrently, as mandated by RCW 9.94A.589(1).<sup>3</sup> Because Bradley's sentence on the possession charge was to be served concurrently with his sentence on the possession with intent charge, for which the standard range was 87 to 116 months, the difference between a standard range of 22 to 29 months or 33 to 43 months did not have a definite, immediate or automatic effect on the range of Bradley's total punishment: he is serving 50.75 months total incarceration for the DOSA sentence either way.

This case is analogous to State v. Acevedo, 137 Wn.2d 179, 970 P.2d 299 (1999). In that case, the defendant was not informed during the plea process that he would be required to serve one year of community placement. Id. at 185. While this Court had previously held that community placement was a direct consequence of a plea, a plurality of the court held that in Acevedo's case, community placement was not a direct consequence of his plea because he was facing deportation immediately upon release. Id. at 196-98. Justice Johnson concurred in the result, but dissented from the plurality's conclusion that community placement was not a direct consequence because deportation was not a certainty. Id. at 204 (Johnson J., concurring). Justice Alexander dissented, but stated that he would have agreed with the majority if deportation was a certainty. Id. at 207 (Alexander, J., dissenting).

In contrast, in the present case, it was a certainty that Bradley would receive a concurrent sentence of at least 87 months total confinement, or a DOSA consisting of 50.75 months of confinement and 50.75 months of community custody, as to possession of cocaine with intent to deliver. Thus, his much lower standard range on the possession charge was not a consequence with a definite, immediate and automatic effect on Bradley's total punishment. As the plurality concluded in Acevedo, one cannot logically conclude that the standard range for possession was direct consequence of his plea of guilty. The misadvisement as to the standard range in Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA did not render his plea involuntary. Bradley has failed to establish that withdrawal of the pleas is necessary to correct a manifest injustice.

In In re Pers. Restraint of Isadore, 151 Wn.2d 294, 302, 88 P.3d 390 (2004), this Court held that when a petitioner establishes that he was misinformed as to a direct consequence of his plea he need not make a showing that the misinformation was material to his decision to plead guilty. This Court reasoned that such an inquiry into materiality would be too difficult, as "[a] reviewing court cannot determine with certainty how a defendant arrived at his personal decision to plead guilty." Id. at 302. In the present case, the State is not requesting that this Court engage in the type of a materiality analysis it rejected in Isadore. As argued above, in these unique circumstances the standard range as to possession was not a direct consequence of the plea. Moreover, this Court need not inquire into the defendant's mental processes to conclude that where a defendant has received misinformation during the plea process that has no practical effect on the range of his punishment, there is no way it could have affected the defendant's decision to plead guilty.

Finally, Bradley surmises in the supplemental brief that if he had known his standard range for possession was slightly lower he might have elected to go to trial on that charge, citing State v. Mendoza, supra. In making this argument, he fails to appreciate that the charge of possession of cocaine was a reduction in the original charge pursuant to the plea agreement. Bradley was originally charged with possession with intent to deliver, and the facts reflected in the Certification for Determination of Probable Cause support that charge. If Bradley had elected to go to trial in Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA he would have been tried on the original charge of possession with intent to deliver, which would have carried a much higher standard range.<sup>4</sup>

4. BRADLEY HAS FAILED TO ESTABLISH THAT THIS WAS A SINGLE INDIVISIBLE PLEA AGREEMENT, SUCH THAT WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLEA AS TO ONE CASE NECESSARILY RESULTS IN WITHDRAWAL OF THE PLEA ON THE OTHER CASE.

It is the State's position that Bradley is not entitled to withdrawal of either of his pleas. However, in the event that this Court agrees that Bradley should be allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty to possession of cocaine, this Court should hold that withdrawal of his plea of guilty to possession with intent to deliver cocaine is not warranted where he has failed to establish that this was a single indivisible package deal.

In State v. Turley, 149 Wn.2d 395, 400, 69 P.3d 338 (2003), this Court held that a plea agreement must be treated as indivisible "when pleas to multiple counts or charges were made at the same

<sup>4</sup> If convicted as charged of possession with intent to deliver cocaine in Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 SEA, he would have had an offender score of 9 (one point each for his six prior adult felony convictions, and three points for the other current felony drug conviction) with a standard range of 87 to 116, even without counting the juvenile adjudications, the same as his standard range for Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA. See Former RCW 9.94A.525(12), 9.94A.510 and 9.94A.515.

time, described in one document, and accepted in a single proceeding." See also State v. Bisson, 156 Wn.2d 507, 519, 130 P.3d 820 (2006). In In re Pers. Restraint of Shale, 160 Wn.2d 489, 494, 158 P.3d 588 (2007), this Court found an indivisible plea agreement where the petitioner pled guilty to multiple charges charged in separate documents, but where the crimes were all committed on the same day, the pleas were signed on the same day and refer to one another.

In the present case, there is insufficient "objective manifestations" to support the conclusion that these two pleas constituted an indivisible plea agreement. See Turley, 149 Wn.2d at 400. Unlike Turley and Bisson, the charges at issue here were charged in separate documents and cause numbers. Unlike Shale, the crimes did not occur on the same day, but rather were committed months apart: May 14, 2002, and August 16, 2002. Although the pleas were entered on the same day before the same judge, there is no indication that the pleas were conducted in a single proceeding. There are separate minute entries for the two pleas. Appendix F and G. Bradley argues that the two plea agreements "cross-referenced" one another. The "cross-reference" is the inclusion of each case in the criminal history of the other and the recommendation that the sentences be served concurrently with each other, both of which are required by the provisions of RCW 9.94A.589(1)(a).<sup>5</sup> The fact that the State recommended the sentence required by law is not evidence of an indivisible plea agreement. There is insufficient objective evidence to conclude that the two pleas were considered an indivisible plea deal by the parties. Bradley should not be allowed to withdraw his plea of guilty to possession with intent to deliver cocaine in King County Cause No. 02-1-07413-4 SEA, which was a knowing, voluntary and intelligent plea that is valid on its face.

E. CONCLUSION.

This petition should be granted in part only, and the matter remanded to correct the judgment and sentence in King County Cause No. 02-C-04718-8 so that it reflects the correct offender

---

<sup>5</sup> RCW 9.94A.589(1)(a) provides, in relevant part, that: "[w]hen a person is to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as if they were prior convictions for purposes of the offender score. . . . Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently." Pursuant to RCW 9.94A.525, "[c]onvictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed 'other current offenses' within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.589."

POLICE
OF PROBABLE CAUSE - NARCOTICS

INCIDENT NUMBER

UNIT FILE NUMBER

That Police Officer R. Smith #5937 of the Seattle Police Department believes that there is probable cause that Noraneda M. Williams committed the crime(s) of Violation of the Uniformed Controlled Substances Act on May 14, 2002 at 2144 within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington by possessing with intent to deliver/manufacture crack cocaine, a controlled substance.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

At about 2139, 5-14-2002 the West Precinct Anti-Crime Team (WACT) conducted a narcotics "SEE-POP" operation in the Belltown neighborhood. The area of 2nd Ave between Virginia St and Bell St. has been the source of numerous Narcotic Activity Reports (NARS), as well as a steady flow of 911 calls reporting rampant street drug activity. I was operating as an observation officer, utilizing 7x50 binoculars to enhance my vision. I have over eight years of police experience with the SPD. I have worked over 85 narcotics "buy-bust" operations while assigned to the WACT, as an undercover officer, arrest officer, and observation officer. I am very familiar with the dynamics of a street drug deal.

I saw Bradley walking NB in the 2100 block of 2nd Ave, in the company of Williams. Bradley stopped near "Zoe's" restaurant on the west sidewalk. Bradley was contacted by an unidentified black male approximately 50 YOA. I saw Bradley take his left hand out of his left outside jacket pocket and hand something to the unidentified black male with his left hand. Bradley then received money from the unidentified male in return. The unidentified black male walked away SB on 2nd Ave. Williams was standing about five feet to the north during this transaction. Bradley and Williams met back up and walked away NB on 2nd Ave. This transaction was consistent with what I know a street drug deal to look like.

Bradley and Williams walked NB on 2nd Ave to "Wally's Market." Bradley and Williams ducked into the doorway and made a hand to hand exchange. Both emerged back onto the sidewalk in front of "Wally's Market." I saw Bradley looking at some items in his cupped left hand. Bradley was contacted by an unidentified black male approximately 30 YOA. I saw Bradley hand the unidentified male something from his left hand. The unidentified male handed Bradley money, and walked away SB on 2nd Ave, and then WB on Blanchard St. Williams was standing about five feet north of Bradley during the transaction. This transaction was consistent with what I know a street drug deal to look like.

Bradley and Williams met back up and walked SB on 2nd Ave into the 2100 block. I provided WACT officers with a complete description of Bradley and Williams, and my probable cause to believe Bradley and Williams were working together in concert to sell drugs. WACT officers contacted both Bradley and Williams in the 2100 block of 2nd Ave. As WACT officers approached, Bradley made an abrupt move to his mouth with his right hand, and subsequently chewed and swallowed suspected crack cocaine. Officer Fox recovered small pieces of suspected crack cocaine from Bradley's left outer jacket pocket, which were later field-tested (positive), and $519.00 in U.S. currency from his person. Setterberg contacted Williams, and recovered 19.8 grams of suspected crack cocaine and $85.00 in U.S. currency. Officer Setterberg conducted a field-test of a small portion of the suspected crack cocaine recovered from Williams (positive). Williams was also found to be wanted on an outstanding KCSO Felony Warrant for VUCSA. The arrests took place in SODA Zone #1 and within a Drug Free Zone (Route #208 1st Ave/Blanchard St).

2 FOLLOWING IMPORTANT RIGHTS, AND I GIVE THEM ALL UP BY 3 PLEADING GUILTY:

4 (a) The right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury in the county where the crime
5 is alleged to have been committed;

18			_____ years $

20 RCW 9.94A.030(23), (27), provide that for a third conviction for a "most serious offense" as
21 defined in that statute or for a second conviction for a "most serious offense" which is also a "sex

(Felony) - 2

1 offense" as defined in that statute, I may be found a Persistent Offender. If I am found to be a
2 Persistent Offender, the Court must impose the mandatory sentence of life imprisonment without
3 the possibility of early release of any kind, such as parole or community custody. RCW
4 9.94A.120(4). The law does not allow any reduction of this sentence.

5 (b) The standard sentence range is based on the crime charged and my criminal history.
6 Criminal history includes prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. If 7 my current offense was prior to 7/1/97: criminal history always includes juvenile convictions for 8 sex offenses and also for Class A felonies that were committed when I was 15 years of age or older;
9 may include convictions in Juvenile Court for felonies or serious traffic offenses that were 10 committed when I was 15 years of age or older; and juvenile convictions, except those for sex
11 offenses and Class A felonies, count only if I was less than 23 years old when I committed the crime
12 to which I am now pleading guilty. If my current offense was after 6/30/97: criminal history 13 includes all prior adult and juvenile convictions or adjudications.

14 (c) The prosecuting attorney's statement of my criminal history is attached to this 15 agreement. Unless I have attached a different statement, I agree that the prosecuting attorney's 16 statement is correct and complete. If I have attached my own statement, I assert that it is correct and 17 complete. If I am convicted of any additional crimes between now and the time I am sentenced, I 18 am obligated to tell the sentencing judge about those convictions.

19 (d) If I am convicted of any new crimes before sentencing, or if I was on community
20 placement at the time of the offense to which I am now pleading guilty, or if any additional criminal 21 history is discovered, both the standard sentence range and the prosecuting attorney's 22 recommendations may increase. Even so, my plea of guilty to this charge is binding on me. I

FORM REV 7/12/00

STATEMENT OF DEFENDANT ON PLEA OF GUILTY
(Felony) - 3

1 cannot change my mind if additional criminal history is discovered even though the standard
2 sentencing range and the prosecuting attorney's recommendation increase.

3 If the current offense to which I am pleading guilty is a most serious offense as defined by
4 RCW 9.94A.030(23),(27), and additional criminal history is discovered, not only do the conditions
5 of the prior paragraph apply, but also if my discovered criminal history contains two prior
6 convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere, of most serious offense crimes, I
7 may be found to be a Persistent Offender. If I am found to be a Persistent Offender, the Court must
8 impose the mandatory sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of early release of any
9 kind, such as parole or community custody. RCW 9.94A.120(4).

10 Even so, my plea of guilty to this charge may be binding on me. I cannot change my plea if
11 additional criminal history is discovered, even though it will result in the mandatory sentence that
12 the law does not allow to be reduced.

13 (e) In addition to sentencing me to confinement for the standard range, the judge will order
14 me to pay $500 as a victim's compensation fund assessment. If this crime resulted in injury to any
15 person or damages to or loss of property, the judge will order me to make restitution, unless
16 extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate. The judge may also order
17 that I pay a fine, court costs, incarceration, lab and attorney fees. Furthermore, the judge may place
18 me on community supervision, community placement or community custody, impose restrictions on 19 my activities, rehabilitative programs, treatment requirements, or other conditions, and order me to
20 perform community service.

21 (f) The prosecuting attorney will make the following recommendation to the judge: _____

22 43 CONCURRENT TO 02-C-07413-4 SEA, DRUG FUND,

3 ☐ See attached Plea Agreement and State's Sentence Recommendation.

4 (g) The judge does not have to follow anyone's recommendation as to sentence. The judge
5 must impose a sentence within the standard range unless the judge finds substantial and compelling
6 reasons not to do so. If the judge goes outside the standard range, either I or the State can appeal
7 that sentence. If the sentence is within the standard range, no one can appeal the sentence.

8 (h) The crime of _____ has a mandatory minimum sentence
9 of at least _____ years of total confinement. The law does not allow any reduction of this 10 sentence. [If not applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the 11 judge AB JS.]

12 The crime of _____ is a most serious offense as defined by 13 RCW 9.94A.030(23), and if the judge determines that I have at least two prior convictions on 14 separate occasions whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere, of most serious crimes, I may 15 be found to be a Persistent Offender. If I am found to be a Persistent Offender, the Court must 16 impose the mandatory sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of early release of any
17 kind, such as parole or community custody. RCW 9.94A.120(4). [If not applicable, this paragraph
18 should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge AB JS.]

19 The crime of _____ is also a "most serious offense" and a 20 "sex offense" as defined in RCW 9.94A.030(23) and (27), and if the judge determines that I have
21 one prior conviction whether in this state, in federal court or elsewhere of a most serious sex offense
22 as defined in that statute, I may also be found to be a Persistent Offender in which case the judge

1 must impose a mandatory sentence of life without the possibility of parole. RCW 9.94A.120(4). [If
2 not applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge AB
3 ____.] BK

4 (i) The crime charged in Count ____ includes a firearm/deadly weapon sentence
5 enhancement of ____ months.

6 This additional confinement time is mandatory and must be served consecutively to any
7 other sentence I have already received or will receive in this or any other cause. [If not applicable,
8 this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge AB ____.] BK

9 (j) The sentences imposed on counts ____, except for any weapons enhancement, 10 will run concurrently unless the judge finds substantial and compelling reason to do otherwise or 11 unless there is a special weapons finding. [If not applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and
12 initialed by the defendant and the judge AB ____.] BK

13 (k) In addition to confinement, the judge will sentence me to a period of community
14 supervision, community placement or community custody.

15 For crimes committed prior to July 1, 2000, the judge will sentence me to: (A) community
16 supervision for a period of up to one year; or (B) to community placement or community custody
17 for a period up to three years or up to the period of earned release awarded pursuant RCW
18 9.94A.150(1) and (2), whichever is longer. [If not applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and
19 initialed by the defendant and the judge AB ____.] BK

20 For crimes committed on or after July 1, 2000, the judge will sentence me to the community
21 custody range which is from 9 months to 12 months or up to the period of earned
22 release awarded pursuant to RCW 9.94A.150(1) and (2), whichever is longer, unless the judge finds
FORM REV 7/12/00

1 substantial and compelling reasons to do otherwise. During the period of community custody I will
2 be under the supervision of the Department of Corrections, and I will have restrictions and 3 requirements placed upon me. My failure to comply with these conditions will result in the 4 Department of Corrections transferring me to a more restrictive confinement status or imposing
5 other sanctions. [If not applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant
6 and the judge _____.]

7 (l) If this offense is a sex offense committed after 6/5/96 and I am either sentenced to the 8 custody of the Department of Corrections or if I am sentenced under the special sexual offender
9 sentence alternative, the court will, in addition to the confinement, impose not less than 3 years of 10 community custody which will commence upon my release from jail or prison. Failure to comply
11 with community custody may result in my return to confinement. In addition, the court may extend 12 the period of community custody in the interest of public safety for a period up to the maximum 13 term which is _____. [If not applicable,
14 this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge AK BK].

15 (m) The judge may sentence me as a first-time offender instead of imposing a sentence
16 within the standard range if I qualify under RCW 9.94A.030. This sentence may include as much as 17 90 days of confinement plus all of the conditions described in paragraph (e). In addition, I may be 18 sentenced up to two years of community supervision if the crime was committed prior to July 1, 19 2000, or two years of community custody if the crime was committed on or after July 1, 2000. The 20 judge also may require me to undergo treatment, to devote time to a specific occupation, and to 21 pursue a prescribed course of study or occupational training. [If not applicable, this paragraph 22 should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge AK BK].

1 (n) This plea of guilty will result in revocation of my privilege to drive under RCW
2 46.20.285 (1)-(3), (5)-(7). If I have a driver's license, I must now surrender it to the judge. [If not
3 applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge ~~AD~~ ~~BB~~]

4 (o) I understand that RCW 46.20.285(4) requires that my driver's license be revoked if the
5 judge finds I used a motor vehicle in the commission of this felony.

6 (p) If this crime involves a sexual offense, prostitution, or a drug offense associated with
7 hypodermic needles, I will be required to undergo testing for the human immunodeficiency (AIDS)
8 virus. [If not applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the

13 (r) If this crime involves a sex offense or a violent offense, I will be required to provide a
14 sample of my blood for purposes of DNA identification analysis. [If not applicable, this paragraph
15 should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge ~~AD~~ ~~BB~~]

16 (s) Because this crime involves a sex offense, I will be required to register with the sheriff
17 of the county of the state of Washington where I reside. I must register immediately upon being
18 sentenced unless I am in custody, in which case I must register within 24 hours of my release.

19 If I leave this state following my sentencing or release from custody but later move back to
20 Washington, I must register within 30 days after moving to this state or within 24 hours after doing
21 so if I am under the jurisdiction of this state's Department of Corrections.

INCIDENT NUMBER 02-208013

That Police Officer R. Smith #5937 of the Seattle Police Department believes that there is probable cause that Anthony L. Bradley committed the crime(s) of Violation of the Uniformed Controlled Substances Act on May 14, 2002 at 2144 within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington by possessing with intent to deliver/manufacture crack cocaine, a controlled substance.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

At about 2139, 5-14-2002 the West Precinct Anti-Crime Team (WACT) conducted a narcotics "SEE-POP" operation in the Belltown neighborhood. The area of 2nd Ave between Virginia St and Bell St. has been the source of numerous Narcotic Activity Reports (NARS), as well as a steady flow of 911 calls reporting rampant street drug activity. I was operating as an observation officer, utilizing 7x50 binoculars to enhance my vision. I have over eight years of police experience with the SPD. I have worked over 85 narcotics "buy-bust" operations while assigned to the WACT, as an undercover officer, arrest officer, and observation officer. I am very familiar with the dynamics of a street drug deal.

I saw Bradley walking NB in the 2100 block of 2nd Ave, in the company of Williams. Bradley stopped near "Zoe's" restaurant on the west sidewalk. Bradley was contacted by an unidentified black male approximately 50 YOA. I saw Bradley take his left hand out of his left outside jacket pocket and hand something to the unidentified black male with his left hand. Bradley then received money from the unidentified male in return. The unidentified black male walked away SB on 2nd Ave. Williams was standing about five feet to the north during this transaction. Bradley and Williams met back up and walked away NB on 2nd Ave. This transaction was consistent with what I know a street drug deal to look like.

Bradley and Williams walked NB on 2nd Ave to "Wally's Market." Bradley and Williams ducked into the doorway and made a hand to hand exchange. Both emerged back onto the sidewalk in front of "Wally's Market." I saw Bradley looking at some items in his cupped left hand. Bradley was contacted by an unidentified black male approximately 30 YOA. I saw Bradley hand the unidentified male something from his left hand. The unidentified male handed Bradley money, and walked away SB on 2nd Ave, and then WB on Blanchard St. Williams was standing about five feet north of Bradley during the transaction. This transaction was consistent with what I know a street drug deal to look like.

Bradley and Williams met back up and walked SB on 2nd Ave into the 2100 block. I provided WACT officers with a complete description of Bradley and Williams, and my probable cause to believe Bradley and Williams were working together in concert to sell drugs. WACT officers contacted both Bradley and Williams in the 2100 block of 2nd Ave. As WACT officers approached, Bradley made an abrupt move to his mouth with his right hand, and subsequently chewed and swallowed suspected crack cocaine. Officer Fox recovered small pieces of suspected crack cocaine from Bradley's left outer jacket pocket, which were later field-tested (positive), and $519.00 in U.S. currency from his person. 20 RCW 9.94A.030(23), (27), provide that for a third conviction for a "most serious offense" as offense" as defined in that statute, I may be found a Persistent Offender. If I am found to be a Persistent Offender, the Court must impose the mandatory sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of early release of any kind, such as parole or community custody. RCW 9.94A.120(4). The law does not allow any reduction of this sentence.
21 defined in that statute or for a second conviction for a "most serious offense" which is also a "sex

(b) The standard sentence range is based on the crime charged and my criminal history. Criminal history includes prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. If my current offense was prior to 7/1/97: criminal history always includes juvenile convictions for sex offenses and also for Class A felonies that were committed when I was 15 years of age or older; may include convictions in Juvenile Court for felonies or serious traffic offenses that were committed when I was 15 years of age or older; and juvenile convictions, except those for sex offenses and Class A felonies, count only if I was less than 23 years old when I committed the crime to which I am now pleading guilty. If my current offense was after 6/30/97: criminal history includes all prior adult and juvenile convictions or adjudications.

(c) The prosecuting attorney's statement of my criminal history is attached to this agreement. Unless I have attached a different statement, I agree that the prosecuting attorney's statement is correct and complete. If I have attached my own statement, I assert that it is correct and complete. If I am convicted of any additional crimes between now and the time I am sentenced, I am obligated to tell the sentencing judge about those convictions.

(d) If I am convicted of any new crimes before sentencing, or if I was on community placement at the time of the offense to which I am now pleading guilty, or if any additional criminal history is discovered, both the standard sentence range and the prosecuting attorney's recommendations may increase. Even so, my plea of guilty to this charge is binding on me. I

STATEMENT OF DEFENDANT ON PLEA OF GUILTY
(Felony) - 3

1 cannot change my mind if additional criminal history is discovered even though the standard
2 sentencing range and the prosecuting attorney's recommendation increase.

3 If the current offense to which I am pleading guilty is a most serious offense as defined by
4 RCW 9.94A.030(23),(27), and additional criminal history is discovered, not only do the conditions
5 of the prior paragraph apply, but also if my discovered criminal history contains two prior
6 convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere, of most serious offense crimes, I
7 may be found to be a Persistent Offender. If I am found to be a Persistent Offender, the Court must
8 impose the mandatory sentence of life imprisonment without the possibility of early release of any
9 kind, such as parole or community custody. RCW 9.94A.120(4).

10 Even so, my plea of guilty to this charge may be binding on me. I cannot change my plea if
11 additional criminal history is discovered, even though it will result in the mandatory sentence that
12 the law does not allow to be reduced.

13 (e) In addition to sentencing me to confinement for the standard range, the judge will order
14 me to pay $500 as a victim's compensation fund assessment. If this crime resulted in injury to any
15 person or damages to or loss of property, the judge will order me to make restitution, unless
16 extraordinary circumstances exist which make restitution inappropriate. The judge may also order
17 that I pay a fine, court costs, incarceration, lab and attorney fees. Furthermore, the judge may place
18 me on community supervision, community placement or community custody, impose restrictions on
19 my activities, rehabilitative programs, treatment requirements, or other conditions, and order me to
20 perform community service.

21 (f) The prosecuting attorney will make the following recommendation to the judge: _____

3 applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge ~~APB~~.]

5 judge finds I used a motor vehicle in the commission of this felony.

6 (p) If this crime involves a sexual offense, prostitution, or a drug offense associated with
7 hypodermic needles, I will be required to undergo testing for the human immunodeficiency (AIDS)
8 virus. [If not applicable, this paragraph should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the 9 judge ~~APB~~ ____.] ~~BT~~

10 (q) If I am not a citizen of the United States, a plea of guilty to an offense punishable as a 12 denial of naturalization pursuant to the laws of the United States.

13 (r) If this crime involves a sex offense or a violent offense, I will be required to provide a
14 sample of my blood for purposes of DNA identification analysis. [If not applicable, this paragraph
15 should be stricken and initialed by the defendant and the judge ~~APB~~ ____.] ~~BT~~

16 (s) Because this crime involves a sex offense, I will be required to register with the sheriff
17 of the county of the state of Washington where I reside. I must register immediately upon being
18 sentenced unless I am in custody, in which case I must register within 24 hours of my release.

19 If I leave this state following my sentencing or release from custody but later move back to
20 Washington, I must register within 30 days after moving to this state or within 24 hours after doing
21 so if I am under the jurisdiction of this state's Department of Corrections.

4 written notice of my change of residence to the sheriff of my new county at least 14 days before
5 moving and I must give written notice of my change of address to the sheriff of the county where I
6 last registered within 10 days of moving. If I move out of Washington state, I must also send

10 CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

11 The State incorporates by reference the Certification for 12 Determination of Probable Cause for Seattle Police Department
13 incident number 02-368236, signed by Officer R. Smith.

14 REQUEST FOR BAIL

15 Bail at First Appearance was set for defendant Bradley in the 16 amount of $25,000. Given Bradley's criminal and warrant history, 17 as well as the fact that this offense occurred while he was 18 released on bail for a pending VUCSA Possession with Intent charge
19 (King County cause number 02-C-04718-8 SEA), the State requests
20 that bail be increased to $50,000. Defendant Bradley has adult 21 felony convictions for VUCSA Delivery (two convictions, 1993 and 22 1997), VUCSA Possession (three convictions, 1993-1995) and 23 Attempting to Elude (1993). Bradley has juvenile felony
24 convictions for VUCSA Delivery (two convictions, 1988-1989), VUCSA
25 Possession with Intent (1991) and VUCSA Possession (two 26 convictions, 1989). Bradley was convicted of Attempted VUCSA
27 earlier this year, in April, 2002. Additionally, he has two Obstructing convictions and multiple driving offenses. According to Court Services, Bradley has been booked into the King County Jail 33 times since 1993 and has accrued 48 warrants on those bookings.

Bail was set at First Appearance for defendant Hayes in the amount of $3,000. Based upon the large quantity of narcotics involved and the nature of the facts as outlined in the Certification for Determination of Probable Cause, the State requests that bail be increased to $10,000.

SEATTLE

CERTIFICATION FOR DETERMINATION

INCIDENT NUMBER 02-368236
UNIT FILE NUMBER

That Police Officer R. Smith #5937 of the Seattle Police Department believes that there is probable cause that Anthony L. Bradley committed the crime(s) of Violation of the Uniformed Controlled Substances Act on August 16, 2002 at 2034 within the City of Seattle, County of King, State of Washington by possessing with intent to deliver/manufacture crack cocaine, a controlled substance.

This belief is predicated on the following facts and circumstances:

The West Precinct Anti-Crime Team (WACT) was assigned to serve a narcotics search warrant at 2408 2nd Ave #108. The warrant was issued by King County Superior Court Judge Michael Fox on 8-15-2002 at 1042, with a 5-day expiration. The warrant described the premise to be searched, as well as a black male identified as "Tone," described as 6'1" 215 pounds, and a black female identified as "Marla," 5'6" and 180 pounds.

At about 2034 the WACT made entry into unit #108, and encountered Bradley in the kitchen and Hayes in the living room. Bradley was found to be 5'11" and 190 pounds, fitting the description of "Tone." Hayes identified herself as the resident of the premise. Several pieces of dominion and control were located to substantiate Hayes' address as 2408 2nd Ave #108.

Officer Z. Dornay recovered 48 grams of suspected flake cocaine (field-test positive) in the kitchen, as well as a total of 46 grams of suspected crack cocaine (field-test positive) in the same location.

33 grams of the total of the 46 grams of suspected crack cocaine was packaged in a plastic baggie, and Officer Dornay saw Bradley throw the baggie to the ground as he entered the kitchen to contact Bradley.

Officer Dornay recovered the remaining 13 grams of the total of 46 grams of suspected crack cocaine in the kitchen sink, packaged in plastic.

Officer Dornay also recovered two scales of weight and measure, and two pieces of glassware coated with suspected cocaine residue (field-test positive) in the kitchen.

Officer Dornay recovered $101.00 in U.S. currency from the kitchen sink.

I found a piece of glassware on a living room table containing .5 grams of suspected crack cocaine. I also recovered several pieces of mail inside the premise belonging to Bradley, but listing a Kent, WA address.

Officer Setterberg recovered .7 grams of suspected crack cocaine (field-test positive) from Hayes, and $38.00 in U.S. currency.

The arrests took place in SODA Zone #1 and within a Drug Free Zone (Route #599 1st Ave and Wall St).

Under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington, I certify that the foregoing is true and correct to best of my knowledge and belief. Signed and dated by me this 17th day of Aug, 2002, at Seattle, Washington.
